PRE CONFERENCE TOUR PROGRAM TO ST. PETERSBURG N2
«RUSSIAN NORTHERN VENICE»
15-18 May 2014

Thursday, May 15

Early morning transfer from the hotels to the Leningradskij railway station and departure to St.Petersburg by Sapsan N 152, Moscow . Meeting at the Moskovskij railway station in St. Petersburg and transfer to the local restaurant in the city center. After meal we start with St. Petersburg with the city tour. You will have a chance to see the most beautiful architectural ensembles of the 18-20th centuries and get acquainted with the history of the construction of St.Petersburg visiting Nevsky Avenu, Admiralty, the Summer Garden, the building of Mariinsky theatre, and bridges across the Neva river, including visit to Peter & Paul Fortress.In the evening we arrive to the hotel.

Friday, May 16

We start with visit to the Hermitage Museum - one of the greatest museums in the world. Five historical buildings, including Winter Palace – the residence of Russian tsars, make the basis of the museum complex. The Hermitage keeps about 3 million monuments of culture and art of the European and Oriental peoples, from high antiquity till nowadays. After Hermitage museum we go to have a lunch at the local restaurant Continue our excursion day with visit to the St. Isaac’s cathedral. This is the fourth tallest cathedral in the world after St. Peter’s in Rome, St. Paul’s in London and the Santa Maria del Flore in Florence and visit to St. Isaac’s would not be complete without climbing the 262 steps of the spiral staircase to the colonnade walkway. This public gallery is about 43 m above ground and offers a magnificent panoramic view of central St. Petersburg. We will finish the city tour with the Church of Our Savior on the Blood – the memorial church in honor Russian emperor Alexander II. Arrival to the hotel.

Evening optional tour: Performance at the Mariinsky Thetre, “A Midsummer Night's Dream” (ballet)

Saturday, May 17

Morning departure to Pushkin city (Tsarskoe selo) - Royal Summer residence which is located 25 km south of St.Petersburg. Luxurious palace interiors are decorated with mirrors, paintings and fine gilded carvings. Great Hall (Throne Room) is especially impressive. Another fascinating interior is that of the Picture Gallery containing works by West-European artists of the 17th and 18th centuries. The palace is surrounded by the beautiful park designed in French style.

Departure to Peterhoff- a jewel of the Russian art, a town of parks and fountains. You will proceed with lunch at the local restaurant “Summer Palace”. After the lunch we start with the Grand Palace – summer residence of Russian Tsars. Over the two centuries of its existence the Grand Palace has become a kind of treasure-store of outstanding works of art, furniture, bronze, chine, glass and everyday objects. The Grand palace is adjoined by the Lower gardens, designed in English landscape style, from the north and the Upper gardens, designed in French formal style, from the south. Both parks are abundantly decorated with sculptures and fountains: Neptune Fountain and Apollo cascade, Oak Fountain and Square Ponds Fountain of the Upper gardens: Great Cascade with Samson Fountain, Terrace Fountains, Marble Seat Fountains, Favourite Fountain, Triton Fountain, Adam and Eve Fountains of the Lower Gardens.

In the end of this day you will enjoy dinner with Folklore show at Nikolaevsky Palace including fourshet with vodka & caviar.

Sunday, May 18

Departure to Moscow by Sapsan N 157 from the Moskovskij railway station, St. Petersburg. Arrival to the Leningradskij railway station, Moscow and transfer to the hotels: Crowne Plaza, Cassado Plaza, Radisson SAS Ukraine.
